IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Catholic Grade School Student wins City-wide Martin Luther King, Jr. Essay Contest.

Mother of Good Counsel School to honor MLK day with African music, a real life portrayal of Dr. King and a reading of the winning essay Tuesday, January 16th.

Milwaukee, January 16, 2007: Dr. King, more than a history lesson

From the inspiration of Martin Luther King Jr., 8th grade student Tess Muszytowski at Mother of Good Counsel wrote an essay challenging our society to make positive choices to decrease the violence in our communities and schools. The essay was recently chosen as the first place winner of the city-wide Martin Luther King, Jr. essay contest, sponsored by the Milwaukee Teachers' Education Association and the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, in the middle school division.

In celebration of the life and accomplishments of Martin Luther King, Jr., Mother of Good Counsel will host a prayer service to honor MLK, his principals and ideals. The celebration will take place on Tuesday January 16th in the school's Alumni Hall. The prayer service will include a real life portrayal of Martin Luther King, Jr., a singing of the African American National Anthem and a reading of the winning essay by 8th grader Tess Muszytowski.

Participation in the essay contest and this school wide event ensures the students at Mother of Good Counsel know Martin Luther King Jr. is more than a history lesson.

The prayer service will take place at Mother of Good Counsel School in Alumni Hall at 8:15am. Mother of Good Counsel School is located near the corners of 69th Street, Lisbon Avenue and Burleigh Avenue in the City of Milwaukee. Ample parking on site.
