A Sunday Speaker Series at Mother of Good Counsel Parish

MGC Parish is honored to host a series of six lectures featuring motivational Catholic speakers to help us boost our faith life and journey.

The events will be held on selected Sundays from October, 2017 to April, 2018 and take place at MGC Church (6924 W. Lisbon Ave.) from 1:30-2:30 p.m. The presentations will be followed by a short Q&A period.

The speaker sessions are sure to be inspirational with powerful messages from individuals with impressive credentials.

The Second Session in our speaker series is, “Keeping Jesus and his Mother Mary in our Daily Family Life” will be held on Sunday, November 5th, 2017, presented by Deacon Henry Reyes, Archdiocese of Milwaukee.

Deacon Reyes has a B.A. in Computer Science and Cognitive Science from Northwestern University, a Master's Degree in Educational Psychology from Marquette University, an M.A. in Pastoral Studies from St. Francis de Sales and is finishing a Doctorate in Ministry from St. Mary of the Lake Seminary/ University.

Ensuing Lectures, all held on Sundays from 1:30-2:30 p.m.

January 14, 2018 "Evangelization" with Bishop Jeffery R. Haines, Archdiocese of Milwaukee

February 11, 2018 "A Personalized Approach to Lent" with Br. Silas Henderson, SDS

March 18, 2018 "Hildegard of Bingen, Doctor of the Church: A Renaissance Woman" with Sister Karlyn Cauley, SDS

April 22, 2018 "Evangelization" with Bishop Joseph Perry, Archdiocese of Chicago

(More information about each Speaker and their topic will be included in our updates and on our website mgcparish.org.)

Come join us in celebrating our Catholic Identity (who we are), Evangelization (what we do), and Stewardship (how we do it).
